JACKSON HOLE & GREATER YELLOWSTONE VISITOR CENTER IN JACKSON HOSTS SPECIAL PROGRAM BY DAVID MUENCH

Renowned landscape photographer David Muench will present a special program at the Jackson Hole & Greater Yellowstone Visitor Center at 532 North Cache Street in Jackson on Tuesday, October 3, 2006 at 2:00 PM. Muench will present a slide show of images to celebrate the publication of Our National Parks, a collaboration with his wife, Ruth Rudner, who will narrate the program.

David Muench is one of the world's best known contemporary nature photographers. He specializes in color wilderness, landscape photographs which have been featured in many magazines, more than forty books, advertisements, calendars, and numerous nature photography exhibits. Ruth Rudner shares her passion for wilderness through personal essays. Her writing expresses her conviction that wilderness is a requirement for both the American psyche and the health of the country. In two lifetimes of exploring the wild places of America, separately and, more recently, together, Muench and Rudner offer Our National Parks as a mutual celebration of the wild beauty of the landscape and the transformative power of nature.

Following the slide show, Muench will hold a book signing in the visitor center lobby, sponsored by the Grand Teton Natural History Association.
